Write, Practice, Perform offers a one-week intensive spoken word and poetry unit with YWC teacher consultants Darren Samakosky and Monique Lamphere-Tamayoshi.

Students will interact with the genre, meet local spoken word artists, and learn to write and deliver meaningful words with control and authenticity. Join us as we build community and hone our voices!

Write, Practice, Perform activities and experiences will include:

- writing with local spoken word artists
- working in writing response groups
- experimenting with structure and form
- learning about technique and strategy
- speaking truth and honing voice
- performance presentations/poetry Slam
