

WRITING FOR COLLEGE AND CAREER READINESS

- A workshop for incoming 11th and 12th grade high school students and college freshman •

This workshop offers students an opportunity to improve their reading and writing of argument texts to develop the analytic skills and tools necessary to succeed in college and career.

Topics to be covered during the 5-day program:

- introducing, organizing and developing topics/claims
- examining complex ideas, concepts and information
- identifying features of argument writing in the text
- using mentor texts to teach argument writing
- determining an author's purpose and tone
- citing strong textual evidence/support analysis
- analyzing/synthesizing substantive topics and texts
- creating, assessing and revising a line of reasoning

SUMMER SESSION • JUNE 26-30 • 8:30AM - 11:30AM

15 hours of group instruction with a 12:1 student-teacher ratio

$300 REGISTRATION FEE

($50 non-refundable processing fee included • No refunds after June 26, 2017)

INSTRUCTORS:

DIVONA ROY (POWAY HIGH) AND CHRISTY BALL (SAN DIEGO CITY COLLEGE)

What students say about the WCCR workshop:

This class made me realize that I needed more focused topics and analysis in my writing.

I now read things in a different way. I focus on identifying the main clause, counterargument, evidence and analysis.

I understand what the elements of an argument are and what can contribute to a strong argument.
